

Speaking Engagements

Manifest U! Inc. and Bo Bradley Certified Dream Coach® and Certified Dream Group Leader, is available for hire to speak on a variety of inspirational topics. All seminars listed below are guaranteed to enlighten and motivate; whether in a small group setting or a large conference.

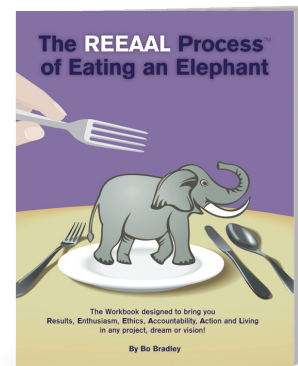

The REEAAL Process® of Eating an Elephant

How do you eat an elephant? One bite at a time! How do you bring a vision to life?

One bite at a time! This presentation will give participants tools to:

- Obtain a clear vision of individual goals.
- Take action towards a vision or fully achieve a vision.
- Have clear strategies to maneuver over, under, around or through obstacles.
- Gain confidence and create new empowering beliefs for support

By the end of the seminar attendees will be on the path to creating Results, Enthusiasm, Ethics, Accountability, Action and Live into your vision!

Refueling the Energy Depleted

Healers, Caregivers, and those who believe they are meant to serve in some modality or capacity are continually burning out, having melt downs and feeling emotionally drained. Many holistic practitioners experience burn out or are at least close to it. As the practitioners are highly involved in the care of others, they completely forget themselves and later wonder why they get so depleted. By the end of this seminar, attendees will understand how energy works, have methods and tools to refuel, be able to recognize the warning signs of carrying someone else's energetic baggage or exposure to an energy vampire.

A Leader Speaks — Are your words holding you back or propelling you forward?

Does your inner critic constantly put you down? Do you constantly use the words such as “try” and “can’t”? The words people use are key clues to self esteem and identifying major obstacles. By the end of this presentation attendees will learn a focused awareness on words you use to communicate with yourself and verbally with others. Participants will learn methods and tools to shift individual communication which will in turn change behavioral response.

Tapping into your Inner Power

In this seminar, attendees will learn they have a never ending source of innate power even though many have lost or forgotten their ability to tap into this resource volitionally. Participants will walk away with the G-I-V-E-R method and will have the ability to treat other individuals as whole, complete and capable.
